Publishers' Press Telegram.
HARRISBURG, Feb. 1.—With one entire city block in the business center of the city in flames, a conflagration raged in Harrisburg today that threatened for a while to destroy the entire downtown section of the State Capital. Shortly before noon the fire was gotten under control, but not before damage estimated at $1,000,000 had been done. The Opera House was destroyed, and offices of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies completely gutted. The city is entirely cut off from wire communication. In addition to these, the buildings doomed to destruction are the Park Hotel, Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, offices of the Baltimore Gas Company, Harris cigar store, Hoffa's drug store and Payne's hat store.
The fire originated in Payne's hat store, under the Opera House, and the explosion which followed scattered the flames throughout the entire block. At 10 o'clock the fire was still burning fiercely, but was under control.
Four firemen were injured while fighting the flames. Valuable assistance was rendered from the departments from Lancaster and Middletown.

FEEDLE OLD PEOPLE

Are Much Benefitted by the Use of Vinol.

Hundreds of old people, right here in Conneville need just such a strength-maker and body-builder as our delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol; and we simply cannot understand why they will continue to drag out a half-dead and half-live existence when we guarantee Vinol will invigorate every organ in the body, stop the natural decline, and make them well, vigorous and strong.

If you want to know how an aged, feeble, discouraged man or woman may be made active, cheerful and vigorous, read this letter:

Mrs. Catherine Thorer, of Albany, N. Y., writes: "Six months ago I felt that I was broken down with age and I was doomed to the weak and feeble condition of old people. The slightest exertion tired me, and I had no strength. My daughter bought me a bottle of Vinol. I soon felt an improvement; I continued its use and am now well, cheerful and stronger than I have been for years; in fact, I feel ten years younger."

Vinol is not a stimulant which reacts on the system, but it is a genuine cod liver and iron tonic which in a natural manner makes rich red blood and replaces weakness with strength. We wish every old person in Conneville would try Vinol on our offer to return money if it fails. P. E. Markell, druggist.

Note.—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Conneville, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

Absolutely Safe and Sound Gilt-Edged Investment!

Not mining, oil, or coal stocks. Don't go thousands of miles away to invest your money with strangers in get-rich-quick schemes that you know nothing whatever about and will never be able to investigate. Stick to those propositions that are near you and which are conducted by men with whom you are acquainted and in whom you have confidence. One of the most excellent legitimate opportunities to make a good return on your money is right at hand in THE CONNELLSVILLE BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION an institution incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania in 1897, and doing business in this immediate vicinity since then, having been the medium through which dozens of men and women have secured their homes.

The first dividend paid the members of the Association was in 1898 and amounted to 6%; in 1899 it came to 8½%; in 1900 to 9%; in 1901 to 10%; in 1902 to 9%; in 1903 to 9%; in 1904 to 9%; in 1905 to 10½%; in 1906 to 10%.

For ten years the Connellsville Building & Loan Association has continued to distribute its profits among the holders of its stock, and has never sustained the loss of one dollar in any of its transactions, to-day holding first mortgages to secure every penny that has been loaned.

No money can be loaned by the Association, under its State Charter, except on improved real estate; there can be no speculation made with its funds, nor any risks taken, hence the absolute safety of the investment for stockholders.

It is the most easily handled and convenient of all known stocks. You do not have to spend hundreds of dollars at the start to secure an interest in the Association; you do not have to lay out a large amount of money to become a stockholder. For each share of stock for which you subscribe

You Pay Only One Dollar Per Month

When you have paid in $120.00, your share of stock is worth $200.00, showing a clear profit of $80.00. As many shares may be subscribed for by one person as is desired, thus enabling you to become a stockholder to the full extent of your circumstances. Your dividend is added, at the end of each year, to what you have paid, and both the principal and the dividend bear interest each succeeding year, which means that you are paid COMPOUND INTEREST on your investment. No risk is run, the money being absolutely safe at all times, and subject to withdrawal on the most equitable and just of terms, as will be explained by either the Secretary or the Treasurer if called upon for additional information.

We are able to grant loans to only about 70 per cent. of those applying for money to build or buy homes because our capital is limited. The more stockholders there are, the more money there is to loan, and the greater number of homeseekers can be accommodated. Any man or woman, whether in Connellsville or elsewhere, who becomes a member of this Association not only assures himself or herself a splendid return on their investment, but helps to make Connellsville grow and become a more prosperous community. We want hundreds of new stockholders, not merely one, two or a dozen. Stock is not issued on what is commonly termed a "Series," but can be taken at any time during the month or year.

The profits are divided equally among the stockholders in proportion to their holdings, only the actual cost of conducting the organization first being deducted.

No Fat Salaries. No High Rents. No Big Operating Expenses. No Graft.

This feature of the Association work deals only with the Investment Department and has nothing whatever to do with the making of loans. It is the chance of a lifetime for the man or woman in moderate circumstances to invest their money where it will bring the best returns and do the most good. Don't wait; become a stockholder now. Every month you delay means a loss to you. Lay the foundation for independence; use shares in this Association for the building stones, and the structure will be reared on an investment that will prove the most satisfactory you have ever made.

TO DEVELOP COAL.

New Spurs Will Be Built at Dunbar the Coming Spring.

Two new railroad spurs or sidings will be built the coming spring and summer to develop coal in the vicinity of Mt. Braddock for the Dunbar Furnace Company. The P. R. R. track begins at a point south of the switch leading to the present siding and crossing Gist run, the B. & O. and the West Penn tracks with a track will strike the plateau near the residence of H. L. Brown, north of Peetha station. This new siding will be a great convenience to the railroad company, as it will not only do away with the dangerous short curve on the present track, but will open the way for the double track from Watt southward, which it is thought will be built the coming summer.

The B. & O. siding begins still further south and passes between Foltz's brickyard and the trolley line, which it crosses by previous reservation on grade, and enters north of Peetha's brickyard with the proposed Dunbar Furnace railroad that is to tap the Froppert and Mt. Braddock coal. The B. & O. will then run via this line to the furnace yards in Harper's fields and will be relieved of half the trouble they now have to place ore and limestone on furnace tracks. It is hardly probable the furnace company will construct their road during the coming summer, and yet it may be done. A shift may be made to get the Mt. Braddock coal out.

Distance to Philadelphia.

The engineering department of the Pennsylvania has made a new measurement and finds that the distance between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia is a fraction more than 253 miles. Fare is charged for 353 miles.

GIRL DISAPPEARS.

Martha Belle Farrer Absent from Home in Uniontown Since Sunday.

Martha Belle Farrer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Farrer of Uniontown, has mysteriously disappeared from her home and has not been seen since Sunday evening, at which time she wore a black beaver hat, a long black coat and a brown skirt of the 18 years old, five feet six inches tall, and rather comely.

The case has been reported to the police, and they have telephoned descriptions to Connellsville, Uniontown and Bridgeport, but as yet have been able to discover no trace of the girl. Her parents think she has been kidnapped.

Tonsilline Prevents Diphtheria

Sore Throat—nature's danger signal.

At the appearance of Sore Throat the first thought should be its instant cure. Don't regard it lightly—don't think it may be gone tomorrow. An hour's delay may bring fatal results.

What good doctor in his practice now advises delay or thinks lightly of any Sore Throat, especially in children?

Modern medication wisely endeavors to quickly control and cure the simpler forms of disease—it's so much easier and so much safer than waiting for the graver diseases to follow.

It is right here and in this way that TONSILLINE has its greatest value.

Tonsilline will positively cure the Sore Throat and thereby prevent the dread disease—Diphtheria.

Tonsilline is the one remedy, sold largely throughout the United States, exclusively for the cure of Sore Throats. Its field is limited but it does its whole duty every time. We know of no case where it has failed during its years of use in thousands of homes.

Buy a bottle today and have it ready for instant use.

Tonsilline is the stitch in time. 25c and 50c at all druggists.

THE TROUBLE WITH JAPAN.
The Japs are reported to be getting cheerful again. The San Francisco school trouble should not be permitted to disturb the peaceful relations between the United States and Japan.
The whole question may be summed up in a few words. We have a treaty with Japan, and if we mistake not solicited by ourselves, which guarantees to their citizens the same consideration, the same rights and the same protection which we demanded,
and still demand, for American citizens in Japan, and which are freely accorded to them. The California people have denied some of those rights and have assaulted and maltreated Japanese citizens.

Either the California people must be made to respect United States treaty obligations, or such treaties must be abrogated. In the latter case our citizens and their business interests must immediately withdraw from Japan and the Japanese in America must do likewise. We must return to the barbaric stage that knew no peaceful invasion of territory.

The whole trouble lies with the San Francisco people, who have been either too ignorant to understand reciprocity or too unjust to practise
it, yet it is a doctrine to which this action is committed.

THE PORK BARL.

The struggle around the Rivers and Harbors pork barl grows fiercer, and the barl is in danger of being upset in the melee. If so there will be a night of sidearm spilled.

The barl seems to be top-heavy
with harbor bills that reek with fat.
One particularly large and juicy portion, labeled, "Cape May, W. Flinn and others," is most seriously threatening the equilibrium of the case.
Its bulk has crowded the Western Pennsylvania river bacon into such thin slices that there isn't enough to feed the hungry mouths that are waiting along the banks of the Ohio from Pittsburg to Cairo, not to mention other lean interests with husky appetites which see only hanks to feed upon.

Chairman Burton has packed the pork barl with special care to the juicy portions reserved for the Lake interests, and they are defending their porkages with zeal and determination against the football rushes of the outsiders.

The pork barl is sadly in need of regulation.

Sir Alfred Jones is trying to whitewash Governor Swettenham. Jones needs a bit of whitewash himself.
Swettenham was a swarthy and he perished
by the sweat in strict accordance with the biblical rule, and no amount of whitewash will restore him.

Even Dam No. 7 is in danger of being submerged in Bill Flinn's inlet.

The Democrats of Blaine township,
Washington county, have nominated a dead man. The Democrats have a fashion of nominating "dead ones."

Now for the real election.

"The Castle of Lies" is now located in The News office. The place has been under suspicion for some time.

Dunbar has a genuine religious revival. When the church is able by merit to close up the barrooms
at 7 o'clock in the evening it is evident that spiritual grace is militant and victorious.

The Connellsville merchants are changing around. The old-timers are giving away to new blood.

The anti-tipping bill is said to be a joke, but the practice has become a dead joke on the public. The man who refuses the waiter a liberal tip nowadays finds the joke is on him.

Dunbar is still on the map as a coke center.

If the San Francisco citizens treat their Japs as well as the Connellsville people will treat the Jap who comes here to lecture before the Young Men's Christian Association, there will probably be no further complaints from the militant government.

Uniontown has a Peach for Principal of its public schools.

Ballot-box stuffing is charged in Allegany county. It is pretty hard to legislate the campaign experts out of business.

Uniontown has a mysterious disappearance.

Another narrow escape from the ready street crossing is reported in Connellsville. It is said the proposed law empowering boroughs to compel safety gates was passed.

The big corporations pay the big and if Fayette county taxes. They are,
after all, not without some virtue.

The West Penn exhibits symptoms of trying to humiliate the trolley
business of southwestern Pennsylvania.

The Greene county boys who came over into Fayette to steal chickens probably had the commercial instinct
but were unable to turn it to account
because they were not of voting age.

The price of bonded whiskey has been advanced, but "compounds" remain at the old figure. The "compound" jug is cheaper and it lasts longer.

MAY RESORT TO LEVER FOR OHIO.

Cape May Proposition Now Figures in Rivers and Harbor Bill.

PITTSBURGERS ARE INTERESTED

And if Western Pennsylvania Congressmen Would Oppose Aid for It
They Would Hurt Friendly Interests,
Bill for Waynesburg Man.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1.—A position full of embarrassment for the Western Pennsylvania members of the House is likely to be presented when the Rivers and Harbors bill is read,
section by section, for amendment.
Today's developments indicated very plainly that the fight on Cold Springs Inlet, Cape May, is going to be the most serious offered to the bill. Chairman Burton has graciously thrown it overboard. He says if a motion is made to strike it out of the bill he wants a full discussion on the subject and that he would not take a decided stance one way or the other.
That being the case it is almost certain the opposition will be able to vote it out.

By joining with the opposition the Western Pennsylvania members will probably be able to get up a combination that will make provision for the construction of dam No. 7 on the Ohio river. But if they join it they will vote against the investments of a number of well known Pittsburgers, like William Flinn and W. H. Koch.
These Pittsburgers have spent about $3,000,000 in making land by dredging
the Jersey swamps near Cape May.
Senator Knox today introduced an amendment to the sundry civil bill, appropriating $5,000 to pay John M.
McDowell, whose home is at Waynesburg, Pa., but whose office is United States Commissioner at Council City, Alaska, for his services in compiling an index of the papers in the court of District Judge Baker.

their opponents. The games were very interesting from the start. As the

STAR JUNCTION.

Items Picked Up in the Washington
Coal and Coke Town.

STAR JUNCTION, Jan. 31.—Mrs. John Jacobson of Dickerson Run was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Harriet Hancoy, of Star Junction, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Watch for the great sale at H. & J.
Kurtz's drug store.

enjoyed an extensive sled riding party
sailing to Fayette City via Perryopolis
and returning home via Grindstone,

brownish war craters.

his bed at Gus Fetkenhour's, is convalescing.

Myra French spent Tuesday here.

GENERAL PENSIONS.

Bill Introduced on Behalf of Veterans
by Congressman Acheson.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Representative Acheson has introduced a general pension bill of interest to all veterans of the Civil War. It amends the act of 1890 so that pensions will be granted up to $24 a month, according to the degree of disability. It also fixes $26 if the pensioner is paralyzed or blind or requires the attendance of another person.

Mr. Acheson does not expect the bill to be passed at this session, owing to the short time that remains, but he believes it will be enacted into a law
during the next Congress.

ELECTED DEAD MAN.

Washington County Commissioners
Make Embarrassing Discovery.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—In making a count of the votes cast at the recent primaries the County Commissioners yesterday found the Democrats of Plaine township had nominated a dead man for Road Supervisor.
W. B. Crothers died just one week before the day the primaries were held. He was one of the wealthiest land owners in the county, but it seems many of the voters did not learn of his death and he received a majority of the Democratic votes.

Good Pay for Commissioners.

If a bill introduced in the House at Harrisburg passes and becomes a law
the Commissioners of Westmoreland county will receive a salary of $6,000 each per year. At the present time they pay is $2,500.

Mr. Average Citizen—Sure we are having legislation regulating everything. Please pass some laws regulating the awful "Comic Valentine Output."

New Goods.

February 1 will see the end of stock-taking at this store and the first showing of the new spring goods. Just as January has been the bargain month at this store we intend February to be the month
of showing and selling new goods.
In the first place we never had as clean a stock to commence a new season, and that means more new goods to show you. We ask you to come in and see these. Buy if you want to, that's just as you feel about it. We are anxious to get your opinion of these new fabrics
and materials and garments.

Children's Dresses.

White and colored from 50c
each up as high as you care to go.
We are anxious to have you see these because we want you to see how they are made, the kind of material that's in them. We believe that a look at these will convince you that you are wasting your time trying to make them yourself. These are dresses that are worth buying and we want you to see them.

Muslin Underwear.

On Monday, February 4, we make our first showing of the new Muslin Underwear. You will find the display on tables in the Cloak Room. We call particular attention to the making and material of these garments. These were all bought before the advance in cotton goods and we also call particular attention to the prices.
We have made special efforts to make this a display that will be worth your while to come and see
even if you do not buy a garment.
We want you to understand we'll have garments like most of these regularly in stock. Some bargains here, of course, but we can not duplicate. But our main object in this display is to have the garments out on tables where you can handle them and examine them just the same as if you were buying. We want you to get acquainted with the kind of Muslin Underwear we handle. We know its different from the ordinary Muslin Underwear and we want you to know it also. This is your opportunity to find out about it.

New Ginghams and Percales.

12 1/2c and 15c the yard. Some patterns that you'll not be able to duplicate here or elsewhere inter on. These we strongly urge you to buy now. We and every store will have Ginghams and Percales to show you the spring and summer through. Plenty of them but desirable patterns, such as these,
will be scarce everywhere inter
on.

New Rugs, Carpets and Mattings.

February 1st we make the first showing of these goods for the coming spring. We believe that we have the best assortment we have ever had to show—believe that it will pay you to do your choosing now. We will take care of your choosing and deliver at any time you may suggest.

MEN'S RALLY NIGHTS.

Each Saturday Evening at the Y. M. C. A. Are Being Boomed.

A JAP TO LECTURE TOMORROW.

With Stereoscopic Views of Japan and Scenes There During the War With Russia—Notes in General of the Y. M. C. A.

Saturday night in the Young Men's Christian Association for the next few months is to be a big night. The Directors want it to be a rally night for men. Every possible attraction is to be put in that will help to make it a desirable place to go. The rooms are open to men at all times, but special attention will be given to their comfort on this night. The first of these will be given Saturday night. The attraction for Saturday night is a stereoscopic entertainment for everybody, both men and women, to be given by the famous Jap, Yamaguchi, on "The New and Old Japan." He uses 100 Japanese color slides in the electric stereoscopic and is said to be the best lecturer on Japan in America today. He was in Japan during the Russian-Japanese war and is now taking a post graduate course in Yale. The Association is fortunate in getting the Jap and the hall should be crowded to hear him. The entertainment is practically free. A little fee of five cents is charged at the door, all of which goes to the Jap. The Association makes no money out of the "pops." Friends are more than money to it. No matter how good the show the fee will never be over five cents. This is a fifty-cent entertainment. It will begin at 8 o'clock.

The Bible Study Committee and the leaders of classes had a "coffee pot conference" last night and arranged to have Mr. Harry Williams, the State Secretary of Bible study, here for a Bible class banquet Tuesday, February 12.

A "Sad Syclopedia" will be the subject of the address at the men's meeting Sunday at 3:30. Orchestra from 2 to 5. Building open from 2 to 6 Sundays.

PIKE RUN CLUB

Above Jones' Mills Will Be Improved for Coming Season.

The already fine property of the Pike Run Country Club on the Laurel Hill mountains above Jones' Mills will be further improved during the coming summer as a result of a recent meeting of the stockholders.

The members decided to empower the Board of Directors to issue bonds to the amount of $25,000. These bonds will be in the denomination of $500, draw five per cent. annually and are payable in thirty years, the privilege being reserved, however, to redeem them in five years if the Board should see fit.

The receipts from the sale of the house, after meeting the floating indebtedness, will be used to add a new dining, billiard and pool rooms to the club house as well as a large bowling alley and install an electric plant and a water system for the main building and the private cottages erected by different members.

ARRESTED FOR MURDER.

Foreigner Picked Up at Bessemer by Johnston Officials.

George Yule, a foreigner, was arrested at the Bessemer coke works in Southern Fayette county on Thursday by J. L. Borkshire, County Detective of Cambria county, for the murder of Morgan C. Bertoz, a brakeman on the Cambria & Clearfield Division of the Pennsylvania railroad. Detective Borkshire brought two witnesses of the murder with him and took them to Bessemer, where they identified Yule as the man who killed Bertoz. The crime was committed last September.

Borkshire and his prisoner, and witnesses' friends' through here yesterday afternoon on their way back to Cambria county.

SEASON SYSTEM DELAYED.

Will Not Become Operative on the B. & O. Today.

According to reports received yesterday from Baltimore, a new pension system of the Baltimore & Ohio will not become operative February 1, as expected. It was originally intended that this department would be established January 1, but it was said to be impossible to complete all details at that time.

Several old men in the service at Connelldale now holding runs, it is said, will go on the rolls of the veterans when the system becomes operative.

A Sledding Accident.

A two horse sled owned by W. S. Hill of Everson loaded with young people and a sleigh driven by Charles Fetterly collided near Loucks at Scottdale Wednesday night and just then a street car came along and hit both vehicles. One horse had its legs broken and had to be shot. No one was hurt.

Price of Eggs Goes Up. In Lanes the price of bonded whiskey advanced the price of bonded whiskey 25 cents a quart. They now charge $1.50 for quarts, 75 cents for pints and 40 cents for half pints. These prices have been effective in Fayette county for many months.

From Westmoreland's County Seat.

GREENSBURG, Feb. 1.—January was one of the busiest months on record for Coroner Wynn's office. Sixty-one cases were investigated, although only four jury requests were held. The railroads held up their end as usual with sixteen during the month, none of these, however, being on the B. & O. Of the railroad deaths 4 were employees and the remainder trespassers. Seventeen were killed in the mines and of this number 11 were the result of state falls. The cases were about equally divided between the various coal and coke companies. One peculiar death is listed, that of a small boy of Greensburg who was crushed to death by a bill board, blown over during a heavy wind storm, which, it will be remembered, created much havoc throughout the country.

Blood poisoning, the result of an infection in a slight scratch, caused the death of Miss Margaret Fisher, a maiden lady of Pittsburgh street yesterday. Some time ago she scratched her hand with a pin. Later, after handling some liquid she had prepared for the preservation of eggs, the sore became infected, and death followed in a short time. The case is remarkable, inasmuch as physicians cannot locate the specific poison in the fluid.

Col. Charles Clarke, captain and manager of the Greensburg West Penn bull team, announces that he has signed Samuel H. Ramsey of Louisville, Ky., for the Greensburg club. Ramsey is a pitcher, five feet 7 1/2 inches tall, weighs 165 pounds and is a college man. He played last year with Dayton, O., in the Central League, finishing the season at Goddard, Ga., in the Georgia State League. He has great speed, all the curves and also use of the spit ball. He is a good hitter and faster runner, and plays with lots of headwork. He and Dekin, signed several days ago, are considered excellent pitchers for Greensburg's team. No definite arrangements have been made here for grounds, but it is thought this will be accomplished within the next two weeks.

Steward Darr of the County Home was notified of a bad destination case near Latrobe yesterday. A family down there consists of man, wife and eleven children. An older daughter married some months ago and was deserted by her husband in McKeesport. She came home and last Tuesday gave birth to a child. When the case was discovered yesterday no effort had been made to coffin or bury the child, which was either born dead or died from lack of nourishment. The family will be cared for by the county authorities.

The Board of Health here has made a number of informations against garbage haulers for their reckless work. These men allow refuse to fall from their wagons on the streets. Out in Ludwick Isaac and Lewis Shofsky, Hebrews, were fined last night for the offense. They allowed, in addition to reeking refuse, boards with nails in them to fall over the streets. More informations, it is said, will follow.

All efforts to locate strange man who was reported several days ago in Lower Burwell township have been unavailing. The man gives scores of names, repeating over his new name he hears as his own. His name is rapidly becoming worse. He uses good language in his talk, and it is thought that he belongs to some respectable family who do not know of his whereabouts. Unless identified soon he will be sent to Dixmont, as he is becoming hard to handle in the county jail.

THEATRICAL.

Plays Booked for the Colonial Theatre. "The Lion and the Mouse" the play that all America is talking about just now, will be presented here soon by Henry B. Harris and with a company that has been especially selected to insure a perfect representation. Charles Klein wrote "The Lion and the Mouse" and the best judges of matters dramatic have given the credit for creating the great American play, for which everybody has been patiently waiting for many years. The subject which Mr. Klein has chosen is one of vital interest to all. It is the influence which the financial power of the country are exerting—and he has treated the matter in a masterly manner. While the drama is serious in its aspect there is an abundance of humor introduced in the broadest of as keen-edged wit as it has been the players' pleasure to listen to in many years. "The Lion and the Mouse" is due here Saturday, February 9th, matinee and night, at the Colonial Theatre.

Mrs. Cochran's Gift.
At a special meeting of the Board of Trustees of Allegheny College last week arrangements were completed for the erection of the new college commons buildings, for which $50,000 has been provided by Mrs. Sarah B. Cochran of Dawson.

Sunday School Workers Meet.
The Twenty-ninth Convention of the Springhill district Sunday School Association was held at Point Marion Saturday and Sunday and was a very interesting and profitable session.

"WHISKEY" COLD CURES.

Danger of Using Alcoholic Mixtures or Cold Tar Tablets.

Laying aside all moral objections against filling up the system with whiskey or drugs because one has a cough or cold, the dangerous physical effects should be sufficient to keep one from using these strong modicines.

A thoroughly scientific way to treat a cough or cold as well as a sensible method is to breathe Hyomel through the nose pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit. The first breath of its healing medication relieves the irritation, and its continued use soon effects a thorough cure.

The best people in Connellsville always keep Hyomel in the house during the winter months, and at the first symptoms of a cold or bronchitis, breathe the remedy, and prevent serious and lasting illness. The guarantee that A. A. Clark gives with every Hyomel outfit should convince you of its curative powers. A complete Hyomel outfit costs but $4.00, extra bottles if needed, 50c, and A. A. Clark guarantees to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

"Getting Back The Old Vigor"

These words describe the feelings of the person who is using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

As the blood becomes richer, the nerves stronger, and the bodily organs more vigorous and regular in action, digestion improves, you sleep and rest better, headaches disappear, and irritability and discouragement give way to brightness and more hopeful feelings.

Most of us have our spells of weakness and tired feelings. Sometimes they pass away, but only to return again, unless active restorative treatment is used, such as Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Too often it is neglected to heed these symptoms of nervous exhaustion that allow the nerves to get weaker and weaker, until a little unusual strain brings on prostration, paralysis or insanity.

It is better to get back old vigor while you have something to build on. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills will help you as nothing else can. 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Med. Co., Buffalo, N. Y. The portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt-book author, are on every box.

For Sale by F. E. MARKELL, Druggist.

THE CONQUEST OF CANAAN

By BOOTH TARKINGTON,
Author of "Cherry," "Monsieur Beaucaire," Etc.

COPYRIGHT, 1905, BY HARPER & BROTHERS

CHAPTER II.

MATIN street, already muffled by the snow, added to its quietude a broken lance where the wander bearing youth pursued his course along its white, straight way. None was there in whom impetuosity overmastered astonishment or who recovered from the night in time to year with effect. No "Crazy boy" gathered courage to act in the thoroughfare a scene of mockery and of joy.

And now that expression he wore—the indulgent amusement of a man of the world—began to disintegrate and show signs of change. It became fiery grave, as of a high conventional, lofty, assured and mannered, as he approached the Pike "manion."

It was a big, smooth stone faced house, product of the seventies, frowning under an outrageously insistent mansard, capped by a cupola and staving out of long windows overtopped with ornamental alab. Two cast-iron deer, painted death gray, twice of the same mold, stood on opposite sides of the front walk, their backs toward it and each other, their bodies in profile to the street, their necks bent, however, so that they gazed upon the passerby, yet gazed without cognition. Two large chain dogs guarded the top of the steps leading to the front door. They also were twins and of the same interesting mold, though hooded beyond the deer by coats of black paint and white, yet they were aggressive, and it was a hideous house, important looking, gold, yet very aggressive, and it sat in the middle of its fat, manure-snowy lawn like a rich, fat man enraged and sitting straight up in bed to swear.

And yet there was one charming thing about this ugly house. Some workmen were inclosing a large side porch with heavy canvas, evidently for festival purposes, looking out from between two strips of the canvas was the rosy and delicate face of a pretty girl, smiling upon Eugene Bantury as he passed. It was an obviously pretty face, all the youth and prettiness there, for your very first slightest, slightly pretty, like the splendid profusion of hair about and above it, amber colored hair, upon which so much time had been spent that a circle of large, round curls rose above the mass of it like golden bubbles tipping a bonnet.

The girl's fingers were pressed thoughtfully against her chin as Eugene strode into view. Immediately her eyes widened and brightened. He swung along the fence with the handsomest appearance of unconsciousness until he reached a point nearly opposite her. Then he turned his head as if hapchance and met her eyes. At once she threw out her hand toward him, waving him a greeting, a gesture which as her fingers had been near her lips was a little like throwing a kiss. He crooked an elbow and with a one, two, three, more military movement reached her small brimmed hat, extending it to full arm's length at the shoulder level, returned it to his head with life guard precision. This was also new to Canaan. He was letting Mamie Pike have it all at once.

The impression was as large as he could have desired. She watched him, the opening in the canvas and watched him until he wagged his shoulders toward the next corner and disappeared into a cross street. As for Eugene, he was calm with a great calm and very rest.

He had not covered a great distance, however, before his gravity was replaced by his former smiling look of the "faded gentleman amused by the innocent postures of the peasants," though there was no one in sight except a woman sweeping some snow from the front steps of a cottage, and she, not perceiving him, redoubled her efforts without knowing her loss. He had come to a thinly built part of the town, the perfect quiet of which made the sound he heard as he opened the picket gate of his own home all the more startling. It was a scream, loud, frantic and terrific shriek.

Eugene stopped, with the gate half open.

Out of the winter skeleton of a grape arbor at one side of the four square brick house a brown faced girl of seventeen precipitated herself through the air in the midst of a shower of torn cardboard which she threw before her as she leaped. She lit upon her toes and headed for the gate at top speed, pursued by a pale young man whose thin arms strove spasmodically to reach her. Scattering snow behind them, hither and yon, the pair sped on like two, tattered brandies before a high wind, for, as they came nearer Eugene, of whom, in the tenacity of their flight, they took no note, it was to be seen that both were so shabbily dressed as to be almost ragged.

The girl ran beautifully, but a faster foot was behind her and, though she dodged and swayed like a creature of the woods, the reaching hand fell upon the loose sleeve of her red blouse, and she fell lightly. She gave a wrench of frenzy. The antique fabric refused the strain, parted at the shoulder seam so thoroughly that the white sleeve came away, but not to its owner's release for she had been brought round by the jerk, so that, agile as she had shown herself, the pursuer threw an arm about her neck before she could twist away and held her.

There was a sharp struggle as short as it was fierce. Neither of these extraordinary wrestlers spoke. They fought. Victory hung in the balance for perhaps four seconds. Then the girl was thrown heavily upon her back in such a turmoil of snow that she seemed to be the more nucleus of a white comet. She struggled to get up, plying knee and elbow with a very anguished determination, but her opponent held her, platoned both her wrists with one hand and with the other rubbed great handfuls of snow into her face, sparing neither mouth nor eyes.

"You will!" he cried. "You will tear up my pictures! A dirty trick, and you got washed for it!"

Half suffocated, choking, gasping, she still fought on, squirming and kicking with such spirit that the pair of them appeared to the beholder like figures of mist writhing in a fountain of snow.

More violence was to mark the peace of morning. Unexpectedly attacked from the rear, the conqueror was seized by the nape of the neck and one wrist and jerked to his feet, simultaneously receiving a succession of kicks from his assailant. Prompted by an entirely natural curiosity, he ceased to turn his head to see who this might be, but a twist of his forearm and the pressure of strong fingers under his ear constrained him to remain as he was, therefore, abandoning resistance and, oddly enough, accepting without comment the indication that his captor desired to remain for the moment incognito, he resorted calmly to explanations.

"She tore up a picture of mine," he said, receiving the punishment without apparent emotion. "She seemed to think because she'd drawn it herself she had a right to."

There was a slight whimsical droop at the corner of his mouth as he spoke, which might have been thought characteristic of him. He was an odd looking boy, not ill made, though very thin and not tall. His pallor was clear and even, as though constitutional; the features were delicate, almost childlike, but they were very slightly distorted, through nervous habit, to an expression at once withal and humorous; one eyebrow higher than the other, one side of the mouth slightly drawn down; the eyelids twitched a little, habitually, the blue, blue eyes themselves were almost comically reproachful—the look of a puppy who thinks you would not have beaten him if you had known what was in his heart. All of this was in the quality of his voice too as he said to his invisible captor, with an air of detachment from any personal feeling:

"What peculiar shoes you wear! I don't think I ever felt any so pointed before."

The rescuing knight took no thought of offering to help the persecuted damsel to arise; instead he tightened his grip upon the prisoner's neck until, perforce, water—not tears—started from the latter's eyes.

"You miserable little snuff!" said the conqueror. "What the devil do you mean nanking this scene on our front lawn?"

"Why, it's Eugene!" exclaimed the hapless one. "They didn't expect you till tonight. Where did you get in?"

"Just in time to give you a lesson, my buck," replied Bantury grimly. "In good time for that, my playful step-brother."

He began to twist the other's wrist, a treatment of bone and ligament in the application of which schoolboys and even freshmen are often adept. Eugene made the torture acute and was apparently enjoying the work when suddenly, without any manner of warning, he received an astounding blow upon the left ear, which half stunned him for the moment and sent his hat flying and himself reeling, so great was the surprise and shock of it. It was not a slap, not an open handed push—nothing like it—but a fierce, well delivered blow from a "blanched" fist with the shoulder behind it, and it was the girl who had given it.

"Don't you dare to touch Joe!" she cried passionately. "Don't you lay a finger on him!"

Furious and red, he staggered round to look at her.

"You wretched little wretch, what do you mean by that?" he broke out.

"Don't you touch Joe!" she cried. "Don't you—" Her breath caught and there was a break in her voice as she faced him. She could not finish the repetition of that cry, "Don't you touch Joe!"

But there was no break in the spirit, that passion of protection which had dealt the blow. Both boys looked at her, somewhat abashed.

Eugene recovered himself. He swung round upon his heel, restored his hat to his hand with precision, picked up his stick and touched his bangs case with it.

"Carry that into the house," he said indignantly to his stepbrother.

"Don't you do it!" said the girl hotly between her chattering teeth.

Eugene turned toward her, wearing the sharp edge of a smile. Not removing his eyes from her face, he produced with deliberation a fat silver box from a pocket, took therefrom a cigarette, replaced the box, extracted a smaller silver box from another pocket, shook out of it a fuse, slowly lit the cigarette—this in a splendid silence, which he finally broke to say languidly, but with particular distinctness:

"Ariel Taber, go home!"

The girl's teeth stopped chattering, her lips remaining parted; she shook the hair out of her eyes and stared at him as if she did not understand, but Joe Louden, who had picked up the banjo case obediently, burst into cheerful laughter.

"That's it, Gene," he cried gayly. "That's the way to talk to her!"

"Stow it, you young cub," replied Eugene, not turning to him. "Do you think I'm trying to be amusing?"

"I don't know what you mean by 'stow it,'" Joe began, "but it's—"

"I mean," interrupted the other, not relaxing his faintly smiling stare at the girl—"I mean that Ariel Taber is to go home. Really we can't have this kind of thing occurring upon our front lawn!"
